

PRESS RELEASE

American Legion Orange Post127 announces 2023 Boys State Selectees

The CT Boys State Selection Committee of Post 127 is proud to announce the Post Selectees for the 2023 Boys State Program. Randy Liu and Adam Liu both from Amity High School in Woodbridge and Peter Ivanov of Hopkins School and resident of Orange, CT are this year's Selectees to this prestigious Leadership Program.

Thomas Hurley, Post 127 Boys State Chair, said, "This year the program will run from June 24TH to the 29TH at the University of New Haven. This program is for Male High School Juniors. Sophomore candidates for next year should begin now to work on qualifying for next year's Program." (American Legion Programs | Connecticut - The American Legion \(ctlegion.org\) <https://ctlegion.org/programs/>)

Information for CT Girls State, (a program of the Legion Auxiliary) for Female High School Juniors can be found here. <https://www.alalgs.org/home>.

Submitted by:

Thomas P Hurley, Sr Vice Commander

American Legion Post 127 Boys State Coordinator

American Legion Post 127 - Orange, CT \(alpost127orange.com\)
<https://alpost127orange.com/contact.htm>

203-605-3947